Our Retreat

Leader:

The Rev. "Mama" Shari Hobby

What an honor it is to bring you a retreat led by our "bishop's wife". But there is so much more than "bishop's wife" to our diocesan "Mama".

Mother Shari was born sixth of eight children to Wycliffe Bible Translator parents in Guatemala. God's purpose and plan for Shari was to be a child of God, wife, mother, and grandmother, all satisfying roles she enjoys. Mother Shari was ordained a priest in 2000. She has served as a parish priest, Missionary Member Care Director, hospice chaplain, Canon for ordination preparation and now as "Mama". Primarily a nurturer, Shari uses that charism through teaching, pastoral care, prayer, hospitality, and just "being" with others. Shari loves to encourage others in their walks with the Lord.

This weekend we will be looking at the lives of Biblical women to both challenge and encourage us in our lives today. We will take time for large group, small group, and personal reflection as we experience God's pleasure and see our place in God's plan.

Kearns Spirituality Center is located within the La Roche College campus, behind the Mother House of the Sisters of Divine Providence to the left. The campus is in the North Hills, approximately 15 minutes from downtown Pittsburgh.

Kearns is a peaceful, spiritual environment that offers a break from the busy cares of today.
Whether you spend quiet time in Visitation Chapel, walk the labyrinth, stroll the woodland reflection trail, or visit Ketteler Grove, you will no doubt witness God's Providence made visible at this retreat center.

Kearns Spirituality Center is a ministry of the Sisters of Divine Providence.
