Our Retreat Leader:

Dr. Erika Moore is Professor of Old Testament and Hebrew at Trinity School for Ministry. Erika received her Bachelor's degree summa cum laude from Wheaton College, her Master's degree summa cum laude from Westminster Theological Seminary, and her PhD from Westminster Theological Seminary in 2003. She has contributed to two Study Bibles, to the relevant sections of five dictionaries, including the Baker Bible Dictionary, and contributed a chapter titled "Joel's Promise of the Spirit" in Presence, Power, and Promise, edited by D. Firth and P. Wegner. Erika also collaborated with B. Waltke and J. Houston in writing The Psalms as Christian Worship (Eerdmans, 2010).

Erika is a wonderful teacher whose vast academic knowledge is infused with her own deep faith and love of God's word. Her enthusiasm for her subject not only makes learning fun in her classes, but leaves you with a desire to continue studying on your own. She encourages dialog in her classes.

Erika and her husband are active in 4-H. Erika is also the chairwoman for the Dayton Fair Queen Contest in Armstrong County. Her young son loves horses and races in competitions. The family now has six horses to care for. Erika spends a lot of time in the barn.

When asked whether she would be willing to lead a retreat for us, Erika's response was immediate and enthusiastic: "I love to lead retreats." This promises to be a wonderful, rich, spirit-filled retreat.
